Hey New Life Family! I wanted to share a little of what is on my heart this week. I hope this word encourages you like it does me!

Music has always been a major part of my life. Truthfully, I enjoy just about all genres of music, but my favorite by far is music that makes me worship. A few months ago I stumbled across a new song by Elevation Worship titled "Graves into Gardens." (straight out of the book of Isaiah AND one of my new favorite jams) The lyrics to this song are a direct reminder that God takes our failures, our imperfections, our messed up situations, our fears, our struggles, our weaknesses, and he uses them for His glory!

"You turn mourning into dancing, you give beauty for ashes, you turn shame into glory, you turn bones into armies, you turn graves into gardens. Oh there's NOTHING better than you!"

The book of Isaiah not only describes the greatness and beauty of God, but also eloquently describes the Savior of the world.... who is coming to "give beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, and the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness."

I encourage you this week to look for opportunities to point others to Christ...The One who gives beauty for ashes, gives joy for mourning, and turns Graves into Gardens!

In Christ's Love,
Jenn Stark
